

The new flower sheets are on the notice board for 2018. There are a number of Sunday's with spaces. Please consider providing flowers from yourself or as a Homegroup on a free Sunday. Add your name to the sheet and tick the box if you require someone to arrange for you. Payment will be arranged with you nearer the time. Thank you.

A remembering service for all those who have suffered loss of a child, from the beginning of pregnancy onwards; together with those who wish to come in love and support; to have time in quiet surroundings to fully recognize their loss and help with healing. It will be held at St John the Baptist Church, St Ninian's Road on Sunday 18th February at 5.00pm. The service is ecumenical and open to all.

Denise and Paul Hocking: The consultant is very pleased and surprised by how well Paul is tolerating the very aggressive treatment. Paul is very cheerful, has few side effects and believes this is because of people praying for him. He will have a further scan in a month's time and then the treatment will continue.

Fiona Crawford: and her family would like to thank everyone at St Thomas' who have prayed for them over the past month. She is still in NineWells Hospital but has moved to the orthopaedic ward and has now had a third surgery. Please pray for mobilization, adequate physio and healing.

Safe Families for Children has a training day on Sat 24 Feb from 09.45-4pm at Capital City Church, 107b McDonald Rd, Edinburgh EH7 4NW.

Could you demonstrate the love of Jesus to children and families who are going through a rough time? By offering friendship, hospitality, or skills and resources you can get alongside families in the community who have no-one to turn to. Please contact the office on 0131 603 8430 to book in or for further information'
