Denise and Paul Hocking: The consultant is very pleased and surprised by how well Paul is tolerating the very aggressive treatment. Paul is very cheerful, has few side effects and believes this is because of people praying for him. He will have a further scan in a month's time and then the treatment will continue.

St Thomas' Journal: We have prepared a journal which can be used to welcome newcomers and by all of us to take notes of what we are learning throughout the year. It contains information about the Church, what is important to us and is filled with great photographs of our community. They are free but if you would like to make a donation, we suggest £5. Please give to Jane Ross or David McCarthy.
