for our prayer

---

O give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name (Psalm 105: 1).

We pray for the universal Church of God;

We pray for all in church leadership: for bishops, local leaders both lay and ordained

We pray for our Bishop Andy Lines in his role of leading churches in the UK and Europe as we seek to make Jesus known: for endurance and wisdom.

For the Church around the world,
we pray for the Church in Rwanda,
and the Most Revd Laurent Mbanda, Archbishop of Rwanda and Bishop of Shyira.

For the Church in Scotland,
we pray for our friends in Westhill Community Church, St Silas', Glasgow and on the Isle of Harris – that they will remain faithful, see the Lord's provision and His kingdom growing.

We pray too for all those church communities around the country which are working to find ways to serve their local communities in these difficult times.

When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified ... But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, 'Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid' (Matthew 14: 26-27)

We pray for the nations of the world:

We pray for our own government and all governments
that have tried to find ways of dealing with this crisis, thanking God for the blessings
of wise decision makers and advisers ...

We pray for the people of Beirut and Lebanon ...

We pray for the local community:

We give thanks for frontline workers,
essential services that have kept working ...
for our schools ... the police ...
for community volunteers who keep in touch with the housebound ...
for those who return to work ... those who wait to return to work ...
those who have no work to return to ...
for business owners who try to keep going ...
for those who still live with fear ...
for the people of Corstorphine, Edinburgh and Scotland...

In this time, known in the Church as Ordinary Time,
we give thanks for all the ordinary things
we have taken for granted.

‘Seek the Lord and his strength;
seek his face continually’ (Psalm 105: 4)

We pray for those in need:

In our hearts, we name individuals, families, neighbours,
care homes, hospitals, voluntary groups ...

We pray for those who are sick or isolated, at home or in hospital ...
Wilma....

We pray for those we have offered to pray for ...

We pray for all who grieve and mourn at this time ...
We remember, and give thanks for, the faithful departed ...
may their families find comfort and support in the prayers of friends ...
May their memories be a blessing to us ...

We pray for David and Ali as they relax and spend time together over the next two weeks. Bless their time give them rest and peace.
